1. Write a paragraph (120 - 150 words) about your hometown.

Bài làm

Everyone has a hometown, a place where you were born or lived as a child. Me too, I was born and have lived in Ho Chi Minh City, also known as Saigon. It's the largest city in Vietnam, populous, making every street and corner in the city center bustling. Saigon is famous for its skyscrapers and crowded malls, attracting avid shoppers who fill the shopping centers every weekend. The pace of life here is fast and hectic, but people make an effort to relax in the evenings, walking along the streets. Saigon's nightscape is enchanting, with people getting together in coffee shops or sitting by the riverbanks. There is much more to say about this charming city, but truly experiencing it is the only way to discover its hidden gems.

2. Write a paragraph (at least 120 words) to describe your home.

Bài làm

My house is a small, two floor apartment in Ho Chi Minh City. It's not the biggest or the most luxurious house, but it's perfect for me. I like it, because it's close to everything I need in life, such as hospital, pharmacies, market, and many more. My house is painted blue outside and white inside by my father. The house has a living room, kitchen, two bedroom and bathroom. On the first floor there is a living room, kitchen and parents' bedroom. The second floor includes a bathroom, a bedroom for me and my younger brother. All rooms are equipped with all necessary amenities. The house has saved many memories of family members. I will make sure to keep my house clean every day.

3. write a paragraph (120-150 words) about a job you want to do in the future.

Bài làm

Everyone has a dream career in the future. Me too, I've always wanted to be a software engineer. I chose this job because I was interested in how computers work and how to use them to solve problems. Ever since I was a kid, I've always been impressed with how people program machines to run on their own. One of the most important things that made me choose this job is because of the increasing demand for software engineers in the world along with high career opportunities. So, from now on, I have to study hard, especially the subjects related to programming and computer science to make my dream come true.

4. Write a paragraph (120 – 150 words) about the city which you would like to visit the most in Vietnam.
